

in this state, and the date suggested is the one that is the date that the bill was first read. So I'm saying all this to say that I support his amendment, and I believe that there should be a clean cut, and this is the cleanest way to make it.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion on the Haberman amendment? Senator Haberman, are you here? Senator Haberman, are you available to close argument on your motion for an amendment? Senator Chambers, I guess I'll let you close if you want to do it for the senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Speaking for Senator Haberman now, "Senator Chambers has done such a masterful job of explaining not only the bill and the reason for the amendment, that I can't add anything to it. So, his presentation will suffice for my close." Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator Chambers. The Chair will accept that as a closing argument on the amendment. The motion is to adopt the amendment offered by Senator Haberman.
